Re: St John Macomb Class Action

Dear St. John Macomb Class Members,

We wanted to update you as to the status of your class action.

We are still in the discovery phase of your case. There is much work to be done. To assist us, please respond promptly to our recent request for information mailed to your home.

We are still in the discovery phase of your case. There is much work to be done. We also anticipate that St. John will ask the judge to dismiss the case. This is normal—the employer usually asks the judge to throw out the case before trial and we were victorious in both of the prior St. John class actions. If, as we expect, the judge denies the hospital's request, the case will proceed to trial.

As of now, we do not yet have a trial date, but we expect it to be some time in 2013.

We will continue to keep you informed through postings on our website (www.sterlingattorneys.com) as the events unfold. We encourage you to pass on this information to other class members.

Very truly yours,

STERLING ATTORNEYS AT LAW, P.C.
